7 Days by the small story

7 days

It all began in a way that we cannot find in ordinary books.

March turned out to be a rainy and gloomy day. In the first role, we will start with a man who lived with organized plans and lifestyle, a little proud and with boundless dreams.

He was a programmer by profession and preferred to manage and manage his time with the help of a clear planner without wasting even a minute.

In the second role, we start with a person who is a gorgeous girl, ambitious, purposeful, and a doctor by profession.

In the first role <H>, who wanted to remain on the throne, as in the second role <N> will also remain on the throne in this book.

3 days before the events

March 16 was a rainy spring day, <H> was so obsessed with his career and goals that his personal life was still in the background, and the last events happened only 2 and a half years ago. He decided to try to change the course of his life and entered Instagram to find this person.

I came across a video material, medical information, filmed by <N>. Eyes, eyes, as represented by <H>, attracted the gazes, everything can be seen in a person's eyes: happiness, love, and sadness.

<H> wanted to be curious and know more about <N> and in a way, it was a little uneasy because they had mutual acquaintances and he was <H>'s childhood friend. <H> was used to being interested in such a situation and was as informed as possible to learn about the person who started a successful career for him. He started flipping through the detailed page and tried to understand <N>'s life to some extent.

2 days before the events

<N> was studying and going to practice somewhere full of great hopes and goals. He is so happy and shows off his studies and professional skills that the video already says a lot. A <H> lived by the plans and work he developed, with a clear schedule, and constantly made plans for his future.

It was March 17th when <H> had an idea and decided to get down to business and not delay anything because his last relationship ended 2 and a half years ago and no one could satisfy him.

"My first step was to follow him on Instagram," said <H>, "he was at work, and I was already making plans in my mind to hook up with him."

:: I started following and watching his stories, and these were already the first steps of a new beginning.

Who is this guy? <N> said when he noticed that <H> started liking his posts.

<H> called his friend and started asking questions about <N> because he wanted to know as much about him as possible. However, his friend knew little and could <H> say little.

7 Days by the small story

When I returned home in the evening, <H> says, I wanted to develop a plan to disconnect and present myself because I did not believe in social networks and thought it was possible and serious. do not leave an impression.

<H> just started a small company and organized all the work himself. This company provided online training for students and <H> also taught after work and did recruiting.

That day was the day of teaching, and when it was over, a new plan suddenly appeared in his mind and he started thinking in that direction at night.

1 day before the events

<N> installed a new Story every time he went to work and presented the information of his morning and professional materials for the day. <N> liked to read quite a lot and he liked his profession very much. Positively presents details of work and his knowledge.

For <H>, without a doubt, he did not miss a single Story and followed the events of <N>'s day on the social network.

He was sending emails like this, and he was starting to get some interest in himself.

He was thinking, who is this guy following me like this? He was telling <N>.

The first thing that came to my mind, I decided to introduce myself very clearly to him, who I am, so as not to be like the rest, - said <H>.

And I started to improve the idea created in my mind and I understood how to give the right approach to the beginning.

<H> liked to plan everything very much and not deviate from the plans check every step and make as few mistakes as possible. It often helped and often the opposite happened and gave a bad reaction in <H>'s life. However, <H> had defined principles and the only thing was that he created his idea "All or nothing".

7 Days by the small story

Before going to bed at night, I thought that I should start everything and try to get it moving, - said <H>, and I fell asleep with that thought and the plan I had drawn up.

Day One (1)

<H> went to work anxious and wondering how and when to proceed. At work, he tried to distract himself with work so that his thoughts did not give him too much reason to rush. After finishing my work quite early, I decided to go home quickly and concentrate only on the plan I had designed.

"I was at home when I thought for a long time how to start, I even wrote a small text on how to start my first message on Instagram," said <H>.

March 19 was a rainy day.

"The first thing I did was carefully prepare my message and decided to send a message in 3 parts," says <H>.

At 19:47 I sent my first message and it went like this:

Hello dear <N>, I'm <H>, co-director and reference of ***** company, programmer by profession, and ***** (name of the city, which is also Naren) from the given city), I was very interested in your content. the way you drive I saw a lot of potential. ::

7 Days by the small story

The first step is over, it remains to wait for an answer.

"He honestly said, 'I saw,' I said, 'Who is this?'" said <N>.

<H> wanted the servant not to answer and the message went unanswered.

:: My friend contacted me and we decided to meet outside, we agreed at 21:00 and he was sincerely waiting for my message from the MP, but I decided to distract myself and focus on my work until I met. my friend, said <H>.

:: 9:00 He was out and this time it was expected, my friend was late and I opened it for a moment to look but he didn't answer and <N> added an option that until he accepts someone's message, no one can write.

:: My first impression was unexpected and I honestly noticed that we are from the same city, I decided to help and understand what they were complaining about, and at 9:26 I replied: - <N> is telling.

Hello, thank you very much.

As soon as I saw that he answered, I was a little surprised and also smiled.

"It was unusual for me because I'm usually quick to react to girls' reactions, but I was surprised when she didn't and I told <N> to relax and wait until we figure out what's going on," <N> said:

"Yes, yes, in fact, I had planned it that way, not to react quickly, because it was a very simple and standard way," <H> said.

7 Days by the small story

I looked at <N>'s message twice, but he still hasn't replied, so I thought I'd wait a little longer. I clearly felt that the meeting with my friend was taking longer and at 11:02 PM I sent my reply email saying:

:: I was surprised, at first it was unexpected that many of the boys responded at once, but <H> took so long, I calmly told <N>, let's see who this guy is, said <N>.

"I had sent my remaining 2 predicted messages and honestly, I wasn't expecting such a quick response," says <H>.

"First, he wrote Latin letters, unlike me, and it was even incomprehensible. I wrote, do you at least have a keyword in Armenian?"

I said to myself: OK, let's take the Armenian alphabet and convey maximum information, I was sending the first wonderful information to convey to Sivis.

First, I presented what service my company provides, and I am also interested in what medical courses can be organized, which can be done through my own system; - tells <H>;

"At first it was surprising that a person could imagine how to get medical information online, I decided to help," says <N>.

No one could imagine that a small contact can create a new story and open a new page in 2 lives, and how long will it last?

<H> and <N> started discussing the medical professions and them.

7 Days by the small story

And it seems that it became clear that medicine is a profession that cannot be introduced to people without practice.

Day Two (2)

The conversation wasn't over yet, and the next day <H> asked very simple questions because they were from the same city together and it even became clear that they even went to the same school. And simple and continuous research between 2 adults.

"It was really unexpected, we understood each other after half a word, we were talking about books or other thoughts about which we both had the same opinion," says <N>.

As the energy was created, I did not expect that we would understand after half a word, says <H>.

It's been 2 days since he left for work, study, horoscope. Discussing the pros and cons, they even talked about more than 2 expected.

7 Days by the small story

"I really did not expect that we have known each other for 2 days and were already talking and sending messages to each other from our family members," says <N>.

"Nothing like this has ever happened in my life. I've known him for 2 days and I'll send pictures of my family and I'll get the same," says <H>.

Shboom was on the same stage as if they both known each other for a thousand years, they were on the same stage and maximally sincere.

It's amazing how two people meet and connect so quickly. It seems that both are on the same level.

It's like true friendship when you meet someone who seems like you've known them for a thousand years.

7 Days by the small story

Day Three (3)

"I started the dialogue in the morning, and since I was rushing to work, I didn't continue and left it alone," says <H>.

"Since I'm not used to being so full of energy in the morning, I was surprised how <H> sleeps so late and gets dressed early and is so full of energy," says <N>.

<H> worked and liked to focus on only one thing at a time, while the other <N> behaved differently and managed to organize several things at once.

Two people from different fields and equally similar.
Things were moving so fast, it's like you've lived the perfect life with that person and they know each other pretty well.

7 Days by the small story

"I didn't expect that we could start understanding each other so quickly, and we were even sending voice messages to each other," says <H>.

It was unexpected, I was really in shock, how could you be so direct with a person, says <N>.

We had, so to speak, already passed such a stage that led to the creation of such a book, says <H>.

"I really don't know what to say 😊, it was really unexpected that I've known the person for 3 days, but I'm also surprised how it was possible to open up so directly and speak so freely," says <N>.

"I thought, well, I'm a closed person and I don't like to talk to people, and only to people very close to me, how can I be so open to someone I just met? says <H>;

"I have very few friends and I speak very, very little and I am a terribly closed person, but with <H> I don't know how it turns out that we understand each other with half a word," says <N>.

"I haven't talked to anyone for so long, it's like you don't leave people, you always want to get to know them well," says <H>;

"I didn't even expect such an answer from myself that even I can give, really," says <N>;

7 Days by the small story

Yes, you rarely come across such things, and already in the evening, I start sending video messages about them and talking to each other as if we were old friends.

Yes, after this shock for the author of the book, unexpectedly, two different people can start to trust each other so quickly.

We made a video message for about 2 hours and we are definitely not separated from each other we show everything from our life and where we live 🗺️, says <H>;

"I was shocked how <H> trusted me and even showed me his wardrobe, I was shocked 😂," says <N>.

Yes, I was surprised by such a process and such confidence on the part of <H>, you did well.

"I listened carefully and looked into his eyes as if we had known each other for years," says <H>.

"I was in shock, how could a man, knowing me for so many days, even show me his wardrobe," says <N>.

Yes, after knowing a person for 3 days, you already manage to show him his wardrobe, as if we are dealing with 2 people who met in a previous life and know each other.

"Until late in the evening, we talked and discussed many topics, and I was really surprised that it was possible to have such a conversation with one person and maintain the level of eloquence," <H> said.

"I was really shocked, it was a friendly interaction because we both kept our communication simple and honest," says <N>.

7 Days by the small story

Day Four (4)

"I made contact in the morning, I even corrected my numbers and I was sure that I would arrive," says <H>.

A person should have 2 phone numbers 😂 and one gets one number and gives 2 to the other, seriously.. - says <N>

At first, I honestly thought that I would not give it, but he inspired confidence and corrected me 😊::.

Well, since the first call was supposed to be between us, I showed a little patience 😊,∴ said <H>.

Even on the phone, we spoke as if we had known each other for a thousand years, without feeling constrained or distant.

7 Days by the small story

Yes, absolutely, as if my friend of a thousand years contacted me, I was in shock. - tells <N>.

In the evening, they continued the conversation like two mature and well-versed people. We were quite similar in views and ideas and equally in thinking.

Among all of us, we do not meet such people who are really similar to us in type and to some extent also in character, it is inexplicable.

Day Five (5)

"I'm not used to sleeping long and I used to wake up very early." I went out in the morning, I was going to exercise, but I knew that <N> was still sleeping.
<H> told.

I wonder where such human energy comes from. Sleep late, dress up early, <N> said.

It was the day after the internship, and since he just wanted to get hired, I was getting ready. ::

:: In the afternoon, I contacted <N>, and we discussed many work-related issues, and how he can arrange his schedule correctly, I already started giving advice, and he listened carefully and agreed with me 😊, he was really unbreakable. they already trusted each other, says <H>.

7 Days by the small story

<H> shared a lot and presented in detail the ups and downs of his career, he had a lot of experience and told in detail how to get off to a good start and create a strong career. Of course, we both had pretty big goals in our career lives and lots of goals. we contacted it, <N> said.

In fact, when you start talking about some process that you've gone through and you want the other person to get over it quickly and you feel like they want to listen to you and act smarter than you are, that's very commendable, and you too. happy about it, says <H>.

Yes, indeed, when someone talks to you about things that are unexpected, and you feel that he has a lot of experience in his life and is able to present it very well, it's quite good, and definitely I really appreciate them saying that for me so much. - <N> said.

In the evening, we continued our conversation until 05:00, says <H>.

I used to talk about my profession and tell many stories about my journey.

"He was really mad, I had never had such a discussion before this morning, and he was listening to me carefully," says <N>.

"We were really in shock," says <H>.

7 Days by the small story

I really appreciate when the other person listens and understands you, and we used to learn about such things from my classmates. I had the impression that this conversation would not end, says <N>.

"Yeah, it was like everything was broken, and we weren't even looking at the time," says <H>.

"I have never had such a discussion with anyone. He said, 'Where have you been all this time?'" said <H>.

"Me too 😂 you get used to a person so quickly and you start to understand each other and it's like they are a part of each other," says <N>.

Day Six (6)

"Yes, I woke up early and went out full of energy," says <H>.

It's amazing where a person has so much energy 🤖, says <N>.

I was on occasion and the day was planned at once, and I had planned everything. tells <H>.

"Undoubtedly, it turned out very well for <H> and everything he planned was done," says <N>.

"And I wanted to meet, and the next day I took the day off and contacted <N> to suggest we finally meet, <H> says.

7 Days by the small story

"It was Sunday, and I didn't expect that it would be so quiet for me, but I was upset and thought that I was really tired, I wanted to eat everything," says <N>.

Before they left, they agreed on a first meeting, and I found a place where I thought we could eat and talk quietly and listen to each other, says <H>.

"True, he wanted to find a little Indian version, because it was the first meeting and he had to make each other comfortable," says <H>.

When he proposed to meet, I agreed and we started dating. I really didn't expect that everything was so fast, but I wanted to get answers to all my questions, says <N>.

"Before going to the event, I had already chosen a place and planned that there would be the most convenient and good option for both of us," says <H>.

<H> had a meeting with friends and planned all the plans for that day. To watch a new movie after dinner. <N> had the day off and thought about spending time with something worthwhile.

Honestly, I was waiting for the next day to meet 😊 - says <H>.

"Yes, I felt that I was expecting a lot from <H>," says <N>.

Both were already mentally preparing for the first meeting.

7 Days by the small story

Day Seven (7)

It was on March 25, I took a day off from work and the next morning I was already preparing my breakfast when I wrote at 10:36 AM, says <H>.

:: I had just gotten ready 🤖 but <H> already got ready with so much energy and had even managed to prepare breakfast, what a dangerous thing to say 😂, said <N>.

"Yes, I'm really full of energy," says <H>.

7 Days by the small story

:: 😬 , You are a fully walking inexhaustible energy 😂 :: - tells <N>.

Every morning, I looked at the weather and always said that I would dress warmly, but I didn't bother to say it 😬 , says <H>.

: 🤔 😊 what a word, I was always lighthearted, says <N>.

<H> went with his morning plans and <N> already went to class.

"I got in touch at noon. We had already agreed to meet at 5:00 PM," says <H>.

🤔 as a mixer of everything, I broke the agreed time, - says <N>.

:: 😬 Patience to you <H>. - tells <H>.

"I used to say to <H>, I'm the mixer of the plane 😂," says <N>.

``Really 😬 , we planned to meet at 4:30 PM, but it turned out to be earlier, so I changed the reservation to 4:30 PM." - tells <H>.

🤔🤔🤔 I finished it soon, - says <N>.

And they agreed to meet, <H> was already there waiting for <N> to come.

They agreed not to hold each other but to keep a small distance said <H>.

7 Days by the small story

:: 🤖 no hugs, still the first one::.. <N> told.

As soon as we noticed each other 🤖, I can't describe it in words, says <H>.

Me too 🤖, says <N>.

Actually, only that restaurant came to mind for such a creative option for the first meeting.

:: 😊 Of course, the aura in that restaurant was very good and impressive, - says <N>.

Have you noticed the people we meet in the restaurant seem to be similar to each other and discuss everything for hours as if they are similar people in everything, who knew each other in the past life and were lucky enough to meet again in this life?

There were many other couples who seemed to have met each other for a long time, but in the restaurant, they seemed to be strangers.

But this was the first official meeting of <N> and <H>, and they did not visit the restaurant as a couple, but it was like a meeting of completely blind people.

We used to talk non-stop, make jokes, and discuss everything 😊 as if we knew each other very well, - says <H>.

Yes 😊, everyone was in pairs, but like strange strangers, and we were just different, - says <N>.

I noticed <H>'s attention was on me, but I didn't understand where he was looking.

7 Days by the small story

To the right, to the right

:: 😊 :: - <N>

That 4-hour-long meeting passed so quickly that both of them didn't want to leave it.

Yes, there are times when you meet a person, but you don't want to leave and definitely want to stay and get to know him better.

After finishing, <H> took a short walk with <N> and said goodbye.

"I wrote a message that you arrived," said <H>.

"Yes, it was a really good day," says <N>.

:: But I see <H> as a friend at the moment 😐 :: - tells <N>.

Yes, I was in a bit of shock 😐, <H> said.

"I'm really making unexpected decisions one by one that was expected of me," says <N>.

:: 😐 I honestly didn't know what to answer, says <H>.

7 Days by the small story

:: He is really a very wonderful guy, who has quite a lot of potential to reach great heights, but I did not see him as a spouse 😞 :: - says <N>.

"I read the message twice, but I know that I can't imagine myself in that situation and I don't see it," says <H>.

"I said I'm sorry for messing everything up, but I knew that everything would lead to this," says <N>.

I was honestly surprised, but I ended our conversation like this: - says <H>
